

NEWS BULLETIN

Media Contact:
Helder Cristovao
(908) 578-7667
helder@dgtrials.com

April 25, 2005 - Atlanta, GA - DGTrials proved its ability to churn out highly skilled drivers yet again at the Drift Atlanta weekend, the first round of the Formula D drifting championship.

Top finishers included Chris Forsberg (MotoRex, 2nd Place) and Vaughn Gittin, Jr. (Falken, 4th Place). In addition, DGTrials own President and CEO, Erik Jacobs (DGTrials, 8th Place), managed to defeat the top qualifier Kenshiro Gushi (Rotor) in the first round.

Forsberg, Gittin and Jacobs all are grizzled DGTrials veterans, and are well known in the East Coast drifting community. While Forsberg has relocated to the West Coast, both Gittin and Jacobs can frequently be seen instructing fellow drifters at DGTrials events in New Jersey, Florida and elsewhere.

Overall the East Coast drivers presented some stiff competition, with other East Coast notables Tony Schultz and Tony Angelo being bumped out early in the event.

For more information about DGTrials, or how you can have DGTrials organize an event near you, please refer to their website at www.DGTrials.com.

About DGTrials

DGTrials was founded in March 2003 to establish drifting and gymkhana as fun, accessible forms of motorsport that test driver skill and control. DGTrials is committed to safety and education; it strives to bring awareness and participation in drifting and gymkhana to the forefront of American motorsport and will always work to expand the sport while supporting the drivers that make drifting and gymkhana exciting to participate in and watch. For more information, please visit us at www.dgtrials.com.